Antioch Plans For Loads Of Summer Fun

by CHARLES JOHNSTON

If all goes as planned, this will be a very big summer for the village of Antioch.

The Chamber of Commerce has several events planned to bolster tourism and strengthen the business community. They are also designed to provide some fun for local residents.

The first big event of the summer will be the second annual R.V., Boat, and Auto Show. It is scheduled to run from Friday, June 13 through Sunday, June 15.

Held over Memorial Day weekend last year, this show still drew a crowd of over 10,000. By changing the dates to avoid competing with people's Memorial Day plans, the Chamber hopes to make this year's show a smashing success and draw between 15,000-20,000 visitors.

To add to the festivities, the Chamber has arranged with P.M. & L. Theatre to provide live entertainment.

Merchants who want to join in on the fun had better hurry, though. The sign-up deadline is at 2 p.m. on Thursday, April 3 in Mayor Toft's office at the village hall.

Then on Sunday, July 13, the Chamber will follow up with another local tradition: the 14th Annual Arts and Crafts Fair. This will be held from 11 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. at Williams Park.

Florence Babusek, director of marketing at the State Bank of Antioch and one of the organizers of this event, believes that this year's fair can be one of the best ever.

Eric Whitten of Regal China, which manufactures ceramic lamps, vases, Jim Beam decanters, and other ceramic art ware, is the chairman of the show.

The coordinator of the show, Ellen Arnold of Downers Grove, has been coordinating arts and craft fairs for the past eight years. She owns the Village Christmas Shop in Downers Grove and has put together some of the most successful festivals of this type in the mid-west.

Any one wishing to take advantage of this opportunity to exhibit their work should call (312)-395-2233.

Dancing The Night Away

'Twas the night before Easter and teenagers in Antioch were having a ball at the new teen center. An ersatz Easter Bunny led the kids in dances ranging from the bunny hop to disco to rock and roll. Bears To Be Thrown Into The Lions' Den

On Friday, April 11, some members of the world champion Chicago Bears football team will be thrown to the lions - the Antioch Lions Club, that is.

Actually the 'Good News Bears' traveling basketball team will face members of the Antioch Lions Club, Rescue Squad, Fire Dept., and ACHS alumni in a game sponsored by the Lions Club.

Potential players for the 'Good News Bears' include: Walter Payton, Otis Wilson, Richard Dent, Jeff Fischer, Steve Fuller, Emory Moorehead, Dave Duerson, Jim Osborn, Mark Bortz, Brian Cabal, Pat Dunsmore, and Brad Anderson.

The arena for this clash of titans will be the ACHS gymnasium.

After the game, Bear's players will be available to sign autographs and have their pictures taken with fans.

Among the prizes that will be given to some lucky winners will be autographed basketballs. The big prize is something that no Chicago football fan's home should be without - a 1986 Superbowl Football.

Popular local radio personality and musician Larry Leafblad will serve as emcee. Entertainment will include Alice's All Star Baton Twirlers, the Antioch Lion's famous Lion, the Antioch High School Pep Band, and a well-known award-winning pom pom squad.

Tickets are available at Antioch financial institutions and from members of the Antioch Lions Club. They are $5 for adults and $4 for students and children under 18 years old.

Fans are urged to get their tickets soon because this is sure to be the hottest game in town.

Nuisance Fires Still Afflicting Antioch

by CHARLES JOHNSTON

The Antioch Volunteer Fire Dept. continued to be plagued by nuisance fires this week.

According to Dep. Chief Bill Carney, of the Antioch Fire Dept., the dry weather and high winds have made it a particularly bad time for brush and grass fires.

"A lot of it can be traced to careless burning of leaves at a time when the grass is very dry and particularly susceptible to catching fire," Carney said.

Except for the early morning fire of March 24, which destroyed the weekend home of the Rev. Charles Rubey and the Rev. Robert McLaughlin of DesPlaines, Chief Carney said that there has not been any major damage resulting from the rash of fires.

"When we get three inches of rain and things get a little greener, things will settle down," Carney remarked. "Until then, it would help a lot if people would be extra careful about any burning they plan on doing."

Fortunately, a little rain came early in the week. With just a little more, maybe Antioch's spring rash of fires will be over.

Rotary Gives Easter Joy

Members of the Antioch Rotary Club made Easter a little more cheerful for 41 needy families in the greater Antioch area. Laundry baskets filled with 14 lb. hams, gallons of milk, and other foodstuffs were distributed before Easter to each of these families.

Bud Scichowski, chairman of the distribution committee, said, "We are very happy we were able to extend our food basket program to include Easter in addition to the Thanksgiving and Christmas baskets we have traditionally delivered."

In addition to the food baskets, the Rotary Club distributed 125 gift certificates good for $10 worth of clothing each at the Antioch Thrift Shop.

Scichowski said that the Piggly Wiggly and Ben Franklin stores were especially generous in helping to make the program a success.

"A very special thanks should be extended to the Piggly Wiggly and the Ben Franklin stores for their help and community-minded attitude," Scichowski concluded.

Thompson Proclaims Child Safety Week

America's favorite meeting place, the shopping center, will become a focal point of another sort in April.

In Illinois and at least two dozen other states, leading shopping center operators have set aside the week of April 7-13 as Child Safety Week.

In cooperation with the sponsoring group, the International Council of Shopping Centers (ICSC), Illinois Gov. James Thompson, has proclaimed the period as Child Safety Week.

"We expect the governors of at least 25 more states to sign similar proclamations," said Michael S. Weiner, the Illinois state director of ICSC.

Weiner, who is vice president of retail leasing for Urban Investment and Development Co., a leading developer and operator of shopping centers, says the activity is being supported by national associations of governors, mayors and law enforcement agencies.

He says he expects more than 4,000 shopping centers to participate in the project designed to prevent or reduce crimes against children and expedite police action when crimes do occur.

The ICSC program will go beyond the broad educational purpose of simply focusing attention on an issue that is so typical of special "weeks" and provide a practical tool to deal with the growing problem of crime against children.

"Each participating shopping center will have facilities to photograph and fingerprint children at no charge. Families will be given an identification packet for each of their children. In the event of a child abduction, the information contained in these packets can assist law enforcement agencies to act more surely and swiftly to recover the child and apprehend the perpetrator," Weiner explained.

Historical Society Plans Antique Sale

The Lakes Region Historical Society will hold its Annual Antique Show And Sale Saturday and Sunday, April 19 and 20, at the VFW Action Center, 75 North Ave. in Antioch.

On Saturday, the event will continue from 10 a.m. until 9 p.m.; on Sunday, from 11 a.m. until 5 p.m. Admission will be $2.50; children under 12 admitted free with adult.

Displays will include furniture, linens, quilts, silver and glassware, and will be screened to assure customers that only quality antiques will be offered.

The proceeds from this sale will be used to support the fledgling Historical Society Museum, located at Main and Depot Streets in Antioch. The society is strictly a non-profit organization—substantially all work is volunteer and all acquisitions are donated.

The museum is housed in the restored Antioch Grade School building built in 1892. This was not the first school structure, the original building was of one-story frame construction, about which very little is known except for a few surviving photographs attesting to its existence.

The existing museum is a two-story yellow brick structure. The building retains the original woodwork, wainscoting, hand-carved trim and double stairway. Construction was begun in 1891 and, as of this date, the only workman of record was Hugh Gene Dardis, aged 36, from Racine County. The museum hopes to acquire some of his tools for display. As far as can be determined, the initial enrollment of the school was 12 students. Up until 1915, the second floor was used as a two-year high school. Students wishing to continue their high school education had to attend a school in Waukegan.

Fortunately, the original brass school bell was stored by School Dist. 34 and was turned over to the society. An exact replica of the old bell tower was donated to the society and, after two attempts, the bell has been restored to its original and rightful place on the roof.

To Visit Woodstock

Zany Auntie Mame, nephew Patrick, and such hit songs as "If He Walked Into My Life" and "My Best Girl" are among ingredients that promise to elevate the Woodstock Musical Theatre Company's April production to a sure-fire hit.

Directed by Sheila Saperstein, an outstanding professional with experience at several Universities and many community theatres, "Mame" opens April 11 for a delightful run at the historic Woodstock Opera House.

This community theatre production will continue for a total of 10 performances, the finale coming on Saturday night, April 26. Ticket information and starting times can be obtained by calling the Opera House ticket office (815) 338-5300.

Kirk Players Ready For 'Mother'

The Kirk Players' spring production, "Don't Tell Mother," by newcomer Monk Ferris, will open on Friday, April 4 for a two day run. This new farce will be staged at the Mundelein

High School with a traditional 8 p.m. curtain.

In this fast-paced maniacal theatre experience a timid librarian witnesses a bank robbery on the night her fiance and his mother are to come to dinner and meet her mother and a government agent shows up to protect the librarian because the robber is en route to bump off the witness, except that the agent arrests the fiance by mistake, and the fiance's mother mistakes the robber for the caterer, and the librarian's mother is posing as the cleaning lady, etc., etc., etc.

According to the director, John W. Lynn, the climax, when all on hand are attacked by a crazed vacuum-cleaner, boggles the mind! Lynn also points out that this is purely a family show. One where "you can bring the kids, the grandparents, the pastor. There's not a smidgin of smut, or an "adult theme" (or adult brain in a single character)".

Proceeds from the show will be donated to the District 75 Parents Club. Tickets for the production are $4 for adults, $2 for students and $1 for senior citizens and children under 12. They are available from the Kirk Players, members of the Dist. 75 Parents Club and at the door on play nights (Friday and Saturday, April 4th and 5th). For additional information call (312) 566-6594 after 6.

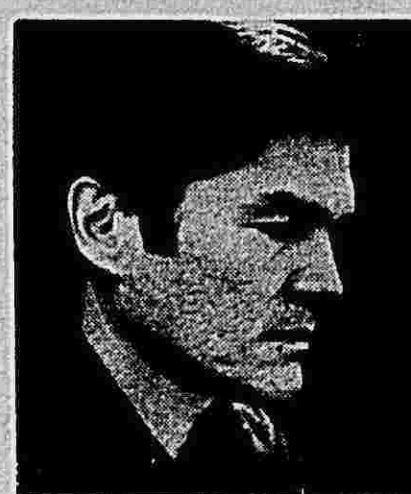

Club Schedules Poet

The Glass Dictionary, Literary Arts Club at the College of Lake County (CLC), Grayslake, is hosting poet Lucien Stryk Wednesday, April 9.

Stryk, who is a member of the English faculty at Northern Illinois University, is heavily influenced by Buddhism and Oriental culture in his works.

He has poetry published in nine collections and translated into seven other languages.

Readings will be held in Room A206 at 10 a.m. and noon. An open workshop will take place at 7:30 p.m. in Room A206. All events are free and open to the public.

Minister Combines Church, Music

The Rev. Jim Howie, who combines his life's work as a Presbyterian minister with his lifelong love of music, will receive this year's Traditional Music Award from the David Adler Cultural Center at a concert/dance on Friday, April 4.

The concert/dance will begin at 8 p.m. at the American Legion Hall, 715 N. Milwaukee Ave., Libertyville.

The music that makes up the Rev. Howie's repertoire is the music he grew up with: the religious songs of the Scottish Covenanters, and the traditional folk songs of the southern mountain people, which he sings a capella or accompanied by autoharp.

He has six rural congregations in his care, and preaches four or five services each Sunday, in addition to carrying on the musical traditions of his people and his part of the country.

After the Rev. Howie's concert and award presentation, the Chicago Barn Dance Co. will play for the dance, which will be called by Peter Lippincott.

Lippincott is a musician, caller, researcher of old-time music and dance leader from St. Louis.

Admission is $4.50 for adults; $4 for members; $2 for senior citizens and children six-12, and free for children under six.

The David Adler Cultural Center, 1700 N. Milwaukee Ave., Libertyville, is a non-profit organization. For information, call (312) 367-0707.

Scouts To Set Dinner Fundraiser

Scout Troop 273 of Vernon Hills, which also includes residents of Mundelein, will hold its annual spaghetti dinner from 5 to 8 p.m. on Friday, April 11 at Hawthorn Junior High. Ticket price is $3.50 for adults, $2.50 for children.

Tickets will be available shortly. Families and friends are invited to participate in the troop's yearly fundraiser which will be used for equipment.

Six Flags To Hold Audition

Six Flags Great America, the Midwest's premier family entertainment center, is currently seeking a Top 40's Band and a barbershop quartet to perform several times daily during the park's 1986 season.

Auditions will be held by appointment only on Wednesday, April 30, at the Gurnee Holiday Inn. Auditioning groups are required to bring their own equipment, and should be prepared to perform several short musical arrangements that best represent their musical talents.

Interested parties should call (312) 249-1776, ext. 462, for further information.

Grant's Power Intact Despite Geary Victory

by JOHN STEINKE

Dist. 4 includes Antioch, Avon, Grant and Lake Villa townships in western Lake County. Six Republican candidates campaigned for two county board nominations in the March 18 primary. The GOP contest was tantamount to the election because the Dist. 4 Democrats didn't recruit any county board aspirants.

There were three combinations of Republican nominees. The anti-organizational candidates were longtime incumbent Norm Geary of Grayslake, and political newcomer Bill Mestan of Fox Lake. The township GOP organizations endorsed Avon Twp. Highway Commissioner Pat Anderson of Grayslake and political novice, Charlotte "Char" Kiesgan of Fox Lake. Lakeland Publisher Bill Schroeder had characterized former county board member Joe Tobolik and Ray Edwards of Antioch as "the Laurel and Hardy" of Lake County politics. They proudly accepted this mantle of leadership, and pledged to bring their comedian act to the courthouse.

There were four fundamental issues in the campaign. First, the election was a confrontation between the Geary and anti-Geary forces. Norm Geary is a longtime incumbent, who attracts devoted supporters and staunch enemies. Second, Lake County say the Republican candidates need a Platform to rally around—to be positive in their campaign efforts. Additional nominations were called for but after the normal three calls with no nominations, a unanimous ballot was cast for Robert P. Neal.

The convention was held at the Swedish Glee Club in Waukegan.

Steinke On Politics

(FIRST OF A SERIES)

THOSE OLD MEMORIES: On Dec. 3, 1985, Lake County Republican Chairman Bob Neal and myself shared refreshments and political conversation at the best restaurant in Lake County—the Country Squire. Neal admitted that Dist. 4 Republican Donna-Mae Litwiler was an ineffective county board member. He stated that he was supporting Wauconda Village Clerk Venita L. McConnell over Litwiler for the Republican nomination for Lake County Clerk in the March 18 primary.

Neal encouraged me to attack Litwiler as a political tool of Sheriff Robert H. "Mickey" Babcox in my column. The GOP Chairman conceded that Litwiler's election would expand the political power of Babcox. Both Neal and myself expressed confidence—that McConnell would defeat Litwiler in the primary. Neal said "Venita will beat her by a 15-10 margin." I commented "You mean, Bob, she will win by a 3-to-2 margin." Neal agreed, "That's right."

I asked Neal whether or not he could extend clandestine support to McConnell. I realized that Bob Neal had to strike a public posture of neutrality in the primary because of his role as county chairman. Neal assured me that he could help direct McConnell to potential financial supporters. In addition, Neal promised me that he would generate votes for McConnell in a low-keyed fashion. Did he product support McConnell? I'll tell you what Neal apparently did in the county clerk's race, next week.

Neal's Bid For GOP Reelection Successful

Robert P. Neal of Wadsworth was reelected chairman of the Lake County Republican organization for his third term at the 1986 Lake County Republican Convention.

A nominating speech was given by Donna Mae Litwiler of Grant Twp. She proclaimed "we need continuity, we need unity, we will win in November."

Senator Adeline Jay Geokaris, the Republican candidate for comptroller, was approved as temporary chairman by a standing ovation of the assembly for the event. The senator described Litwiler as the "next Lake County Clerk."

Rules were adopted and credentials were approved including the unanimous adoption of a Lake County Republican Platform. The Platform was the idea of Bob Neal. In presenting his views, he said, "We as Republicans need to show the people of Lake County what we stand for—what we believe in." He went on to

Annie Mae Anticipates Festive Spring Events

I hope everyone had a happy Easter and the Easter Bunny was real good to you! Now is the time to get serious and diet after that great Easter dinner and all of those chocolate eggs. I notice the moment we have those lovely spring days there are people running all about town.

Don't forget your health clubs and of course the new fitness court that will be in by April 25 at Williams Park.

I understand the parks and recreation brochure is in the printer and getting ready to be sent to your homes. If you don't have one by the middle of April be sure to stop at the village hall or the township office and pick one up. There are lots of ideas for your children and you for the summer.

our well-known Athletes (?) are preparing for the big night—and hopefully they will be in shape by then because I have seen a few after practice and they look like warm honey. The Bears are going to "lick" them I'm afraid.

Receives Safety Award

Charles B. Schroeder (right), district maintenance engineer, and Wendell Shaw (left), Teamsters Local 330 representative, present safety award to Ben Venturi (center), Lake Villa. The highway maintenance employee had no vehicular accidents or lost time injuries for the years 1983-1985.

IDOT Honors Venturi

Ralph C. Wehner, district engineer for the Illinois Dept. of Transportation (IDOT), has announced that Ben Venturi, who resides in Lake Villa, was honored at the Dist. 1 Annual Safety Awards Luncheon at the Salt Creek Golf Club, March 18.

Venturi had no vehicular accidents or lost time injuries for the years 1983, 1984 and 1985. This achievement is especially notable since his work involves highway maintenance activities which afford consistent exposure to traffic and inclement weather.

The department, in cooperation with Teamsters Local 330, developed the department's safety recognition program. Of the nearly 850 full-time maintenance personnel in Dist. 1, which includes Cook, DuPage, Kane, Lake, McHenry and Will counties, Venturi was one of only 46 people so honored. He is married and has three children.

Outstanding School

All citizens residing within the boundaries of the College of Lake County (CLC) district cannot help but be proud of the preliminary findings of the five-member evaluation team from the North Central Assn., the premier educational accrediting agency in the midwest for colleges and secondary schools.

The full report of the evaluators will not be completed for another month, but the chairman of the review team was unstinting in his praise of CLC. Dr. Charles J. Carlsen, president of a Kansas junior college, called CLC "the best college we have reviewed." We can't conceive of any higher praise from the august educational rating group.

It was significant that the review team made special mention of the high quality CLC instructional and administrative staff, the "people" side of education. Bricks and mortar along with adequate financial resources are one thing, but it's still the quality of the job being done in the individual classrooms, in our opinion, that makes the difference in education. That's where CLC really shines.

Without a doubt, it's nice to know how a peer group looks at our local college. The visiting review team reaffirmed what a lot of people already knew. That CLC is an outstanding school. That's great news.

Pointing The Blame

Ever since the last recession, voters have had a knee-jerk reaction to tax rate increases. That's understandable under normal circumstances. No one likes higher taxes.

Where it isn't understandable is in the case where a tax rate increase is tied directly to construction of a new public building. Illinois law, for good reason, provides for separation of tax funds for construction and for operation. Unfortunately, the separation leads to confusion on the part of the electorate and that is why officials in Mundelein and the Round Lake area are confronted with a dilemma today.

In a nutshell, Mundelein voters voted to build a swimming pool at the high school, but have refused to approve an increased tax rate to operate the pool. In the Round Lake area, voters voted to build a new community library, but have refused—twice—to approve an increased tax rate to operate the library.

On one hand this doesn't make sense. On the other hand, the yes-we-want-it, but no-we-won't-pay-for-it attitude says something about the system. What it says to us is that the officials in Mundelein and Round Lake, and wherever similar dilemmas have arisen, were neglectful in not telling the voters that two yes votes are needed to implement the public improvement—one for the facility and another one to provide tax dollars for operations.

Our purpose isn't to fault the officials in Mundelein and Round Lake for being deceptive or misleading. They haven't been the first elected officers to fall into the trap of getting approval for issuance of bonds for construction of a new public facility and then getting turned off by the voters on funding operations. To correct the problem and eliminate confusion, we think officialdom is going to have to be more up front with the voters, explaining that public building usually is a two-part proposition for the voters.

In the case of Mundelein, there are several options before going back to the voters with a request for more taxes, including revenues. For the Round Lake Library District, however, it's a case of going "back to the well" for the third time, probably in November. The second try March 18 failed by only 40 votes, so perhaps the third time will be a charm.

The time has come, we're convinced, that voters be made aware up front that construction for public purposes usually is a two-part proposition. Let's not point a finger at the voters for being niggardly or understanding. The blame lies elsewhere.

New White Hope

Anyone interested in clean lakes and water management—that should take in a lot of people in our locality of abundant recreational lakes—owes it to themselves to get acquainted with the white amur, also known as the "Chinese grass carp," which could play a significant role in improving lake quality in the future.

The white amur is an interesting fish. It devours weeds. It doesn't attack other fish. It doesn't breed in a normal lake environment. At maturity, the white amur can reach 40 pounds. When considered for game purposes, its taste is compared to scallops or red snapper. The white amur is attracting interest in other states for its weed control potential, but it is regarded as illegal in Illinois at this time.

A movement has been started by Round Lake waterfront property owners to introduce the white amur as a weed fighter. They have gained the support of Round Lake Park Mayor George Scherer to obtain state approval and raise funds to stock white amur. The Illinois Dept. of Conservation is interested in the Oriental import and is experimenting with it at the Spring Grove hatchery.

The white amur offers an exciting new dimension to local water management. Efforts should proceed with all due haste to determine if this interesting fish can, indeed, improve water quality.

Future President

When Republicans gather in Mundelein May 16 for their annual campaign dinner they could be listening to a future president of the United States.

Letters to the editor are welcome. They should be on topics of general interest, approximately 250 words or less. All letters must be signed, and contain home address and telephone number. The editor reserves the right to condense all letters.

has booked Donald Rumsfeld as keynote speaker. Rumsfeld, who first came to political prominence 20 years ago as a North Shore representative in Congress, has credentials that equal or surpass any GOP presidential aspirant today. And the native of Illinois is leaving no doubts these days about his White House ambitions.

Rumsfeld is not now considered among Republican front-runners for 1988, but he could vault into the limelight in a hurry. Certainly, anything and everything the former Secretary of Defense says publicly from now on will have impact on his personal political fortunes and the future of our nation. In our opinion, Don Rumsfeld has all the qualities Americans look for in a chief executive.

Health Shopping All The Rage; Is It Practical?

by BILL SCHROEDER

It's all the rage—shopping for health care. Just like you price shop the cost of a pair of new shoes or compare prices on new refrigerators, all of us are being educated to compare hospital charges and physician charges as part of the move "to promote health care cost containment and access to quality health services through competition, consumerism and greater provider productivity."

The quotes are from a pamphlet produced by the Illinois Health Care Cost Containment Council, which was formed through the passage of public law 83-1243.

So it's also the law to shop health care.

The council has published its findings on comparison of 1985 hospital prices in Illinois broken down by area. It shows such things that St. Therese Hospital, in this locality, has the highest private room price at $280 per day and the highest semi-private room rate of $260 while Harvard Community Memorial Hospital is the lowest in both categories at $195 and $185. Sherman Hospital in Elgin has the most reasonable blood count at $10 while Good Shepherd Hospital, Barrington, and American International Hospital, Zion, are the highest at $25.

There doesn't seem to be any rhyme or reason to hospital charges such as emergency, X-ray, chemistry or operating room.

Why such wide variances? It has nothing to do with quality, to be sure. The council pointed out that interest paid on borrowed money, for example, could dictate pricing. Or premiums paid for malpractice insurance. Cost of wages, equipment and supplies, as might be expected, come into play.

Other factors contributing to prices constitute a mind-boggling array of considerations. The hospital maintaining highly sophisticated procedures like heart bypass surgery or organ transplants, or the hospital providing care for a large number of persons unable to pay must spread those costs over the entire "menu."

Even with all the attention given to cost containment, the matter of health care costs still boil down to the practical consideration that you "hang the cost" when you're sick. Yes, you can shop with ease—when you're feeling well. If you need medical attention in a hurry, I'm not so sure how much shopping would be done.

TIES WITH PAST—Even as the Lakeland locality changes, there are ties with the past. Spinney Run Corners, a development of town homes, condominium apartments and retail shops, is rising rapidly on the site of the former Spinney Run Farms Dairy.

The commercial center of the development, located on Milwaukee Ave., south of Gurnee in Warren Twp., is being built around the former dairy building. It will feature a group of small shops and a day care center.

In a wooded area on a hill, where Spinney Run's famed Ayrshire dairy cattle once grazed, 26 town homes and 18 condo units will be built. The entire complex is located within the corporate limits of the Village of Gurnee.

Spinney Run Farms Dairy supplied a full line of dairy products to stores and homes throughout Lake County and the North Shore for approximately 50 years until about 10 years ago.

NEW CLUB—A group of sportsmen are getting ready to invest a cool $3 million for their new gun club on Curren Rd. near Campbell Airport, which is located between Grayslake and the Round Lake area.

Members of the exclusive Northbrook Gun Club have purchased 600 acres for their facility which will include a $1 million club house. The club was deposited from its present quarters in Deerfield when a developer dished out a bundle of cash for the prime real estate.

APPEARANCE—Antioch's three "Presidents" are getting their costumes dusted off in preparation for an appearance at Hawthorn Center in conjunction with a White House spectacular May 9-18.

Ken Smouse (Gen. U.S. Grant), Bill Seamann (George Washington) and Bob Wilton (Abe Lincoln) will share billing with the traveling White House miniature replica, which will be the centerpiece of a tribute to our nation's capitol.

Smouse, Seamann and Wilton do remarkably realistic portrayals of the three U.S. presidents. They're so good it sends shivers up your spine.

Letter To The Editor:

Library Shortchanged

Editor:

I anxiously awaited the results of our March 18 vote, particularly regarding the 12 cent tax increase for operating the new Round Lake Library.

I was appalled at the results—voted down by 40 votes! The library is our greatest resource of information, not to mention education and entertainment. Isn't it somewhat ironic that the community would vote for an increase in taxes to build a new library, but vote down an increase to operate it? I wonder how much money a year these folks are pumping into cable t.v., movie theatres and game rooms to keep their children entertained?

I moved my family and business to Round Lake less than a year ago for a better way of life, and I admit that I am not that familiar with the local politics and therefore, the opinions of the local voters. Would someone please tell me why you voted no? Is it because you see the library only as a place your children have to go for information on a report for school?

The median assessed value of property in Round Lake is not that high. For example, if my property is assessed at $40,000, that means my tax would be increased $48 per year to cover my share of the library's operating costs. I spend 3 times that amount for 2 people for one day at Great America!

Not meaning to be judgmental, however, I have noticed that the taverns and bars in Round Lake are usually pretty crowded on the weekends, and the "Off the blotter..."

reports an awful lot of DUI's. The average person in a cocktail situation drinks approximately 2.5 cocktails in an hour. Would suggesting a mere 1 cent additional tax on each alcoholic cocktail sold in Round Lake for the benefit of those seeking to enrich their brains rather than pickle it be too out of line?

Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Koutny

Montrimas/Koutny

Anne Marie Montrimas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph A. Montrimas, Lindenhurst, and Michael Alan Koutny, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Koutny, Channel Lake, were joined in marriage at 3 p.m. on Feb. 15 at St. Bartholomew Church in Waukegan, by the Rev. William J. Zavaski.

The bride's parents were married in the same church 23 years ago, and the bride was also christened there. Father Zavaski is a boyhood friend of the bride's father.

The bride chose a gown of gardenia white with chantilly lace. The gown featured a split V-neck and collar and full Victorian sleeves with wide cuffs. The skirt of ruffled chantilly lace fell from the natural waistline. She wore a pearl and lace petal profile headpiece with a cathedral length mantilla veil with matching chantilly lace. The maid of honor wore a gown and hat of plum satin. The mothers of the couple wore shades of pink.

Susan Montrimas, sister of the bride, of Lindenhurst, was maid of honor.

Mark Koutny, brother of the groom, of Channel Lake, was best man.

Ushers were Thomas Koutny, Lindenhurst, and David Koutny, Mundelein.

The bride attended Southern Illinois University in Carbondale, Ill. and is employed at the Veterans Administration Medical Center in North Chicago.

The groom attended the College of Lake County in Grayslake and is self-employed.

Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Schaufel

On March 1, Ellsworth W. and Wilma M. Schaufel, Lake Villa, celebrated their 40th wedding anniversary with a reception at St. Mark's Lutheran Church in Lake Villa.

The couple was married on March 1, 1946, at St. Luke's Lutheran Church in Kenosha, two weeks after Ellsworth's return from the war.

The couple had 10 children: Bill, Antioch; Barb, Wisconsin; Tom, Waukegan; Stanley, Kankakee; Karen, Trevor; Jeff, Lake Villa; Jim, Round Lake; Vanessa, Wildwood, Mary, Round Lake, and Dave, deceased.

They have 14 grandchildren.

Ellsworth retired from Ammco Tools, North Chicago, in 1984.

The buffet dinner was prepared by family members and served to 80 to 90 guests.

After dinner an entertaining program was provided by family members, coordinated by Vanessa (Schaufel) Thomas. Saiima Waara, sister-in-law, composed and recited two poems. Barbara (Schaufel) Breest, daughter, did some family reminiscing. A musical medley of memories consisting of songs from the 30's and 40's, was performed by Lynn Schaufel, daughter-in-law, and Vanessa Thomas.

The program was concluded with a prayer by Pastor Roger Pittman.

Organ Donor Programs Need Public Awareness

By SUSAN MONTGOMERY

When Jeannie Baird agreed to type letters to help a fundraising drive for Brett Wethington, a Wauconda youngster needing transplant surgery to correct a rare liver disease, little did she realize that it would become a two-and-a-half year project.

During the next few years, both Baird and co-worker Steve Gurevitz, a village trustee in Wauconda, began an undertaking that would give not only statewide but national attention to the plight of transplant patients.

After the shock of learning that a liver transplant operation could eventually cost as much $350,000 for the youngster who was then only six months old, Baird said she soon realized an even greater problem confronted the Wethingtons and other families nationwide - finding a suitable donor organ.

"When we realized how much money we had been able to raise, we then learned that the problem was not the money, but finding a donor," Baird said.

The ensuing campaign that eventually comprised more than 90 fundraisers through the help of hundreds of volunteers and caring individuals came to a tragic end last January when three-year old Brett died following complications after a second transplant operation.

The news of the youngster's loss left Baird and many others who came to know and love him stunned and wondering what could be done to help others who faced similar situations.

The problem, as seen by those directly involved in organ donor programs and hospital transplant departments, lies in increased public and professional education about organ donor programs.

For both Baird and Gurevitz, their efforts to raise public awareness about organ donor programs will not be through until a "required request" bill is passed by the state legislature.

The proposed law, which was recently enacted in four other states, was presented by Ill. Rep. Judy Topinka (R-Riverside) and is currently up for review before the Illinois House of Representatives. It would require that families of a potential donor must be informed by either a physician or nurse about organ donation.

"Most doctors are hesitant to ask a family whose child is dying if they would consider organ donation. They feel badly enough," Gurevitz said. "This (legislation) would take the pressure off the doctors, because it requires them to ask the families."

"When you think about it, if a family realizes their child won't make it, it can help if something positive comes out of it."

"Why not help to save someone else's life?" he said. "Can you imagine how many lives could be saved if enough livers were available?"

Currently, thousands of people nationwide are in need of liver transplant. Only a small percentage of donor organs are available however and many individuals die waiting.

Becoming an organ donor is as simple as placing an identification sticker on a driver's license. The real need, as Gurevitz and Baird see it, lies in educating medical personnel on how to approach the family of potential donors during a stressful situation.

"The purpose of the bill is to save lives; it doesn't cost anything. I think medical personnel should be taught how inform families on organ donation," he said.

The manner in which a family is approached does in fact have a direct correlation to whether a response is favorable or negative, according to Mindy Malecki, director of the Organ and Tissue Recovery Program at Rush-Presbyterian-St. Luke's Hospital in Chicago.

A survey on the discomfort level of nurses who did approach families about organ donation showed that 100 percent of those who felt uncomfortable about the subject received a negative response, while nurses did feel comfortable on the issue had a positive response from 80 percent of the families, she said.

"I've found that more families want to give," she said. Under the "required request" bill, transplant coordinators would provide in-service training programs to the hospital personnel about family dynamics.

"The employees would be instructed on how to answer questions. Families need to know there is no cost to them. In the case of a sudden death, such as a motorcycle accident, families need to understand more about death. They saw someone alive a few minutes before and suddenly they're gone," Malecki said.

Having a nurse or physician available to answer questions can provide additional comfort to the families.

Although there is a national computer network that supplies information about organ donors and recipients, the problem that often occurs when a match is found is geographic distance between the two.

"What happens is that you need a donor in Illinois, but you find one in California," Malecki said. "Who's going to pay for the transportation costs?"

The average cost of transporting an organ is $16,000, she said.

"Chances are there's a potential donor across the street. We need to have a combination of public and professional education to enforce this request," she said.

Wauconda Family Enjoys Pets

by CHARLENE WHITNEY

Kathy Greiner of Wauconda is a real animal lover. She and her family have enjoyed many pets for the last seven years of their married life. Before that, she and her husband have had pets all their lives.

They have lived happily with five dogs, one cat and two horses.

The horses were boarded at Maranatha Stables near the Wauconda Apple Orchard. Greiner says it's an excellent place for their pets. They will be moving to Florida in a few months. At this stable, they have heat for the horses in the winter and fans for the summer heat. They are very well fed.

Greiner had several horses before. They got two special horses: Midnight Blue, a black and white paint, three years old; and a registered quarter horse named Red, which is now five years old. Midnight Blue is a show horse and Red is what Greiner calls "a love bug baby."

The cat is named Puppy because she thinks she is a dog. Puppy is a year and a half old and a pure bred Siamese cat. They got her from Wisconsin at the age of five weeks old. Puppy had a bad temper at first, but through much love, Puppy is well adjusted and happy.

For a while, the Greiner family raised Pekingese. They kept some and sold some.

They had a cat by the name of Buttons that lived to be 11 years old. Buttons died of old age and kidney stones. The veterinarian couldn't save the cat.

The five dogs make an unusual group as the sizes vary. There is a doberman Pinscher named Gretnchen and she is one year old. The Airedale Terrier named Liebsien is six months old. Freeway is a one year old, male, blond Pekingese.

Porky is a favorite as she is half Pekingese and half Yorkie. She is four and a half years old. Porky is blind in one eye. It is thought that this is a result of a fall from a third level, through some steps. The veterinarian thought the dog would die at the time of the fall that took place two and a half years ago.

All the animals get along and enjoy each other. All have their shots up to date. There is a four foot fence in the back yard. Greiner won't allow their pets on any other property or to bother anyone. All the pets are well trained.

The advice that Greiner gives is, "Give the animals all the love they need. Take time for each of them, every day. Even the horses need a lot of love and a lot of work." She says the time, care and cleaning is no problem. She has never had a mean dog and doesn't plan to have one.

It was easy to tell, just by talking to Greiner, that this family truly loves their pets and do care for them.

Coach Sees Whittier As Carmel's Greatest

Rod Whittier, Carmel High's "Mr. Everything" on the basketball court, has been rated the greatest athlete in the history of Corsair sports competition.

That accolade was sounded by Head Basketball Coach Frank Belmont, who coached the Wildwood product and graduate of St. Gilbert School in two consecutive Sweet 16 appearances.

Belmont praised Whittier, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Whittier, at the school's annual winter sports awards program.

We've had some great athletes at Carmel, but in my opinion Rod Whittier is the greatest athlete to ever wear the brown and gold," Belmont declared.

Belmont cited the curly-haired senior for being both a brilliant athlete and a dynamic leader.

Whittier regularly scored in excess of 20 points per game and was outstanding on defense as a regular in his senior year. As a junior his role was as more of a playmaker.

He was a regular on the Carmel football team for two years, performing as a running back and receiver. As a junior he was one of the top pass catchers in the Chicago area.

As a hardwood senior, Whittier achieved statewide recognition, being ranked high on wire service all-state polls, winning all Lake County, all Suburban Catholic Conference, and being accorded "Player of the Year" by a regional daily newspaper.

Rod told Lakeland Newspapers that he will concentrate on basketball in college.

"I'm too small for college football. I don't want to get killed," he joked.

Coaches considered Whittier a Division I possibility, especially if the school isn't biased against small guards.

Air Force Academy and Purdue are among big schools expressing an interest in Whittier's basketball future.

Belmont said he will do everything possible to help his star guard obtain an athletic scholarship.

Rod plans on majoring in communications in college, hoping to enter broadcast or print journalism upon graduation.

Mustangs Newcomer One To Watch

After two weeks of practice, the Mundelein varsity boys' track team is primed up for its first meet of the season against Antioch on April 10.

With nine returning lettermen on the team, the Mustangs are hoping to offer enough competition to challenge some of the other top contenders in the North Suburban Conference.

Varsity coach Rick Foss, who sees the North Suburban Conference as "one of the better track conferences," said that with schools such as Zion-Benton and North Chicago, the conference is a "hot-bed" of competition.

Among the primary runners, Foss will be counting on performances by returning lettermen Brad Wagner in shotput and discus, sprinters Jeff Geary and Dan Maresh, a junior, and Chuck Gustafson, who will also compete in the quarter-mile events.

The question of whether Geary may undergo knee surgery later this season is a consideration Foss is carefully weighing. "That will certainly hurt us if he does need surgery," he said.

Other top runners returning this year are Alberto Trevino, the team's fastest sprinter, Steve Pape doing hurdles, another sprinter John Carr and Rick Barr in the 800-meter and one-mile events.

Newcomers to the team include senior Mike Szatkowski in high jumping and foreign exchange student Patrik Ramberg, who will participate in high jumping and sprinter.

"Ramberg did well on the soccer team earlier, and (Szatkowski) has already jumped over six feet this year," Foss said.

Another newcomer at the varsity level who is expected to gain more recognition as the season continues is freshman Nathan Sweet as a long distance runner. "I would not at all be surprised if he qualified for state," Foss said.

With 39 members on the team, Foss said he believes the Mustangs will be able to provide the necessary depth to help them out against their competitors. But with teams such as North Chicago, Libertyville and Zion-Benton, Foss said the Mustangs will face "very great competition."

He hopes, however, that the team will improve its conference record after finishing seventh place last year. "I'd like to see us take fourth or fifth place," he said.

NWSC Race To Be Tight: Crowns

Track followers may do well in sticking around to the final event in Northwest Suburban Conference meets.

According to Grayslake boys track coach Pat Crowns, that's when most meet, and perhaps even the NWSC suburban meet, will be decided.

"It's going to be close. There is not one team that is overpowering like Grant was last year. I'd say the conference meet will be won with between 120 and 100 points. All the meets are going to be relatively close," Crowns said.

Grant easily outdistanced Lake Zurich for the NWSC conference meet title 147-114 last year. The Rams finished third with 80 points, with a 22-point dropoff from third to fourth.

The Rams had a chance to win the dual meet season going into the final meet of the year. Lake Zurich, Grant and Grayslake all had 5-0 league records before Grayslake fell out of the running by losing to Lake Zurich and Grant.

"I think we have a pretty good shot at a finishing higher," Crowns said of the upcoming season.

Crowns picked Grant, Lake Zurich and Marengo as top-notch conference squads, but one team is not above the rest at this point.

"I think we can place first or second in the conference meet in the two-mile, mile, 110-meter high hurdles, 300-meter low hurdles and the 800 meter run. We might also be very strong in the 3200 meter relay," Crowns said.

The 3200-meter relay squad set a school record last year.

Returning from last year's contingent will be junior two-miler Carl Wismer. Wismer won the conference meet in that event last year at 10:06.01.

Other returning athletes who placed for Grayslake in the conference meet include John Lui in the long jump and 110-meter high hurdles, John Kavanaugh in the 800-meter run and Butch Lanor in the triple jump.

The Rams lose the top sprinter from last year, George Thayer and some potential returnees due to transfers or jobs.

One weakness which may halt Grayslake's drive to the top of the league could be depth.

"We have a young team and we don't have a lot of depth and that could hurt us. The dual meet part of the season will be tough," Crowns said.

The Rams open the season against some stiff competition in Waukegan East and Libertyville at East April 5.

The conference opener is against Lake Zurich and Grant April 15.

Q: I have trouble with short putts that break right or left. I don't consistently miss the hole on one particular side but if I did maybe it would be easier to correct. What should I be doing on these short breaking putts?

A: On any short putt remember to keep everything as simple as possible. The most effective way to do this is to turn any short putt, even one which breaks, into a straight putt. First, estimate the amount of break, for example, 3" to the right. Now simply choose a spot 3" to the left of the hole and putt to that spot. Be sure you are square to the target line made by the ball and the spot and then let the putter travel straight back and straight through on that target line. Again, putt to the chosen spot, not to the hole.

Governor's Conference Set For April 15-16

"Harvesting Illinois' Newest Crop, Tourism" is the theme of this year's governor's conference in Springfield, to be held April 15-16.

Bolstered by a bulging State travel budget, the conference will provide attendees information and counseling from industry experts. Illinois no longer wants to be known as an en route stop for travelers. We have attractions found no-where else...colorful history, interesting lore, lodgings and hospitality. Next order of business is, "Get the Word Out."

Someone at the Brookfield Zoo must be doing just that. The word has gone as far as New Zealand. Zoo visitors from that "down under" southern hemisphere area, are the Kiwi and the yellow eyed penguin. This special display, located in the Aquatic Bird House, will be open through May 7. Both species, though birds, are flightless.

Flightless is more than can be said for the air-born public today. Economical air fares, offered by national air-lines, may be turning them into flying buses, affordable to most travelers. Since deregulation in 1978, the number of air-lines has nearly tripled. There are now about 100 on record, but well over another 100 tried and failed.

Now bus businesses have dollar competitors in coast to coast travel services. Cross continental bus carriers, such as Greyhound and Trailways, can no longer offer a lesser fare on long trips. Reduced bus fares and passengers have necessitated a belt-tightening that cuts unproductive schedules. Expensive down-town bus stations are being moved to the suburbs and the national aspects of motorcoach lines is disappearing in favor of inter-city routes. Filling these voids, smaller buses and vans are being put into service by new operators to replace old carriers, on a smaller, less expensive scale.

Though public air and land carrier prices may be declining, other travel factors have shown a steady increase. According to U.S. News and World Report, the automobile is a leader in consumer price up-creep. During the past five years, we have seen an average escalation of 26 percent among 100 popular items...but, what about our cars? In those same five years, new cars went up 18.9 percent, used cars 60.2 percent, auto insurance up 50.9 percent, auto repairs increased 27.6 percent and driver's licenses 65.9 percent. Travel related expenses, such as hotel lodgings, 46.7 percent increase, and restaurant meals, 26.8 percent.

However they arrive, vacationers are constantly on the lookout for interesting places, festivals and events to visit. A new publication, Coast to Coast Recreation Life, went on sale at news-stands in March. Designed especially for recreation vehicle travelers and vacation drivers, it describes over 140 possible visits. Check your newsstand, or write, Aqua-Field Publications, 656 Shrewsbury Ave., Shrewsbury, N.J., 07701.

Maple sugar time is with us again. River Trail Nature Center, 3120 Milwaukee Ave., Northbrook, part of Cook County Forest Preserve system, will demonstrate the making and cooking. Pancakes and syrup, all you can eat, will be served for a nominal fee, on April 6 and 13, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., rain or shine. Call (312) 366-9420 for details.

Closing Information Offered

Attorney Sarah Lessman will be the speaker at the Noon Time Law Seminar sponsored by The Assn. of Women Attorneys of Lake County, from noon to 1 p.m. on Thursday, April 3 at Waukegan Public Library, second floor meeting room. Topic will be "What the buyer and the seller need to know at the closing." The public is invited. The May seminar will offer information on wills.

Walworth Has Spring Activities

Flowers and showers may be expected in Southern Wisconsin in March, as snow coverings thin to allow penetrations of green. Transient birdlife stop for a visit while others stay for the season. Spindle-legged, big-eyed, spotted fawns look curiously at the world for the first time. Wisconsin bunnies, not related to the former Lake Geneva club, care for tiny newborn offspring, which actually tells us...Spring Is On!

Spring brings the urge to get outdoors and enjoy nature's emerging miracles. A hundred shades of St. Patrick's Day green, colorful blossoms and blue skies compose the setting for Walworth County's rolling, glacially-formed outdoor beauty. Then Easter arrives the final Sunday in March...assuring Spring is to stay.

It's a time for travelers to enjoy the pleasures of Wisconsin's nearby Geneva Lakes Area. Joggers and bikers will be padding and pedaling a shoreline pathway around Lake Geneva in April, as ice is replaced by warm water surfaces. "Ice Out" is an early April harbinger of the finest in fishing. Famous nearby lakes, such as Geneva, Delavan, Como and Lauderdale, gently rock freshly cleaned boats, as spring "shake down cruises" are sampled by captains and anglers.

For details of spring activities in Nature's Wonderland, write Walworth County Tourism, Box 1007, Elkhorn, Wis. 53121, or call 1-800-345-1020 for special needs. Advance reservations will confirm mid-June lodgings for the fun-filled week of Lake Geneva's Centennial...June 14-20.

Dining Guide

The good eating spots, whether you're in a hurry, seeking family dining or out for gourmet food for that "special occasion," are featured weekly in Lakeland Newspapers.

Teachers To Meet April 8

The Retired Teachers Assn. of Lake County will hold its monthly luncheon meeting Tuesday, April 8, at noon, at the Northern Chalet Restaurant, 1760 North Milwaukee, Liberville.

Featured speaker will be Barbara Richardson, Lake County coroner, who will give a presentation on the Lake County Coroner's office. Her topic will be: "Everything you wanted to know about the coroner's office, but were afraid to ask."

Lakehurst Hosts Junior Trade Fair

Over 200 students will advance their knowledge of the nation's free enterprise system as they participate in a Junior Achievement Trade Fair at Lakehurst Mall April 5 and 6.

The students, representing some 13 area businesses, will sell products which they have seen through the research, development and production stages. "The Trade Fair offers the opportunity for these 'student' businesses to market these items to the public," said Kris Ann Miller, division manager for Junior Achievement.

Among area businesses represented by these students are American Hospital Supply, OMC Johnson, Abbott Laboratories, Walgreens, Kemper Group and Household Finance Corporation.

The students will also compete for the Best Booth and Best Sales Pitch Award during the Trade Fair.

YES, YOU CAN!

You may have seen many new satellite earth stations, or "dishes," installed in our area recently and asked yourself, "Are these dishes legal?" YES. In 1984, the U.S. Congress approved home earth stations designed for the reception of satellite broadcasts. Not only are dishes legal to use, they are affordable, too. You can enjoy the freedom and wide variety of satellite television today.

Speaking Up Produces Worthwhile Results

GARY S. MEYERS

When the battle involves standing up for marketplace rights, the average American consumer is a pussy cat.

Only about one in three people who have a problem with goods or services take the time to complain, reports a study by the Center of Study of Responsive Law. Most consumers are intimidated, or doubt that they will get results.

Psychologists say complaining often is demeaning and frustrating for the average person, and often it is embarrassing to admit you've been duped. However, consumers complaints play a vital role in the marketplace.

For example, it took one Chicagoan two years to get a refund from a New Orleans antique dealer. He purchased a vintage ceiling fan while on vacation but never received it.

When numerous phone calls and letters of complaint failed, the consumer filed a formal complaint with the Louisiana office of consumer protection, and also wrote complaint letters to consumer newspaper columns in both Chicago and New Orleans.

Consumer advocates told The Meyers Report successful complaining depends on receipts, estimates, warranties and other documents.

-KNOW WHERE TO DIRECT THE COMPLAINT. Deal with people, not organizations. Get the name of the specific person with authority to correct your problem and you will usually get more responsive action. When you are dealing with a specific person, the responsibility is more nailed down.

-DOCUMENT YOUR COMPLAINT. Keep records of whom you speak with on the phone or in person, what their position is and when you spoke with them.

-CONSUMER ROAD BLOCKS. Expect to encounter problems when complaining. Some businesses use verbal threats or credit-record intimidation to discourage consumers from achieving justice. Retaliation and intimidation occur when the buyer and seller have an ongoing relationship, such as in a landlord-tenant or utility monopoly situation.

Stand up for your rights and report any such occurrences to law enforcement officials. Write down all the actions of the company or individuals involved. This will come in handy as you progress up the complaint ladder.

-CHOOSING A COMPLAINT FORMAT. Decide whether to complain by letter, by phone or in person. Some problems may be disposed of quickly and easily by phone. Others may call for a face-to-face discussion and follow-up letter, while some can be best handled by a letter alone. Assess the situation and choose the most appropriate strategy.

Consumer education is the key to successful complaining. The more you know about the product, employees, company or industry, the less you can be taken advantage of during the complaint process. Pursue your complaint as soon as possible so the details will be fresh in your mind.

-WHERE TO START. Begin at the source of the problem, at the bottom of the complaint ladder. But don't hesitate to move your complaint into other channels when you are not getting action.

Depending upon the urgency of the circumstances, wait two or three weeks before moving up to the next step.

your awareness and your assertiveness. If you use your consumer skills in the marketplace, you can often avoid the need to resort to the complaint process.

Complaining effectively is not easy, nor will you get results everytime, but the more you speak up when you are unfairly treated in the marketplace, the better at it you get.

"Reputable merchants rely on repeated business for their livelihood and most want to maintain good relations with their customers," Baumhart said.

If you complain, you are seeking compensation rather than a new product. It is difficult to get refund for an unpleasant vacation, or swap a botched appendix operation for a refund.

The following complaint guide, compiled by the Center of Study of Responsive Law, applies to both goods and services:

-KNOW WHAT SETTLEMENT YOU WANT. Are you seeking a refund? Credit for future services? A repair? An exchange?

It is always less expensive for a company to pay you in its own goods and services than to pay you with an equivalent amount of cash. This is especially true with fixed-cost services like airplane flights or hotel rooms.

Make sure you have a legitimate grievance, and gather proof to support it, including Saving money by using less gas.

THE UNHANDYMAN'S GUIDE TO WRAPPING YOUR WATER HEATER.

Today, one of the best ways to save money is to make sure your home is as energy efficient as possible, so you use less energy.

Wrapping your water heater with insulating materials is one of the quickest ways to reduce your use of gas, especially if it's located in an unheated area.

WHY YOU SHOULD DO IT.

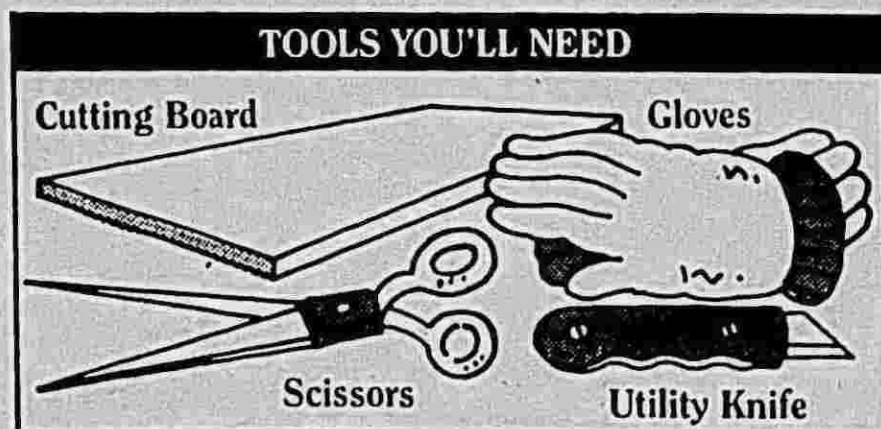

With just an hour of your time and a kit usually costing less than $20, you can cut your annual water heating usage up to 10% by wrapping your water heater. Since heating water is the second largest use of gas energy in your home, bundling up your water heater could pay for itself in less than two years.

Here's an easy way to see if your water tank is costing you money. Give your tank the touch test. If your water tank feels warm when you touch its sides, you should consider insulating it, especially if it's located in an unheated area of your house.

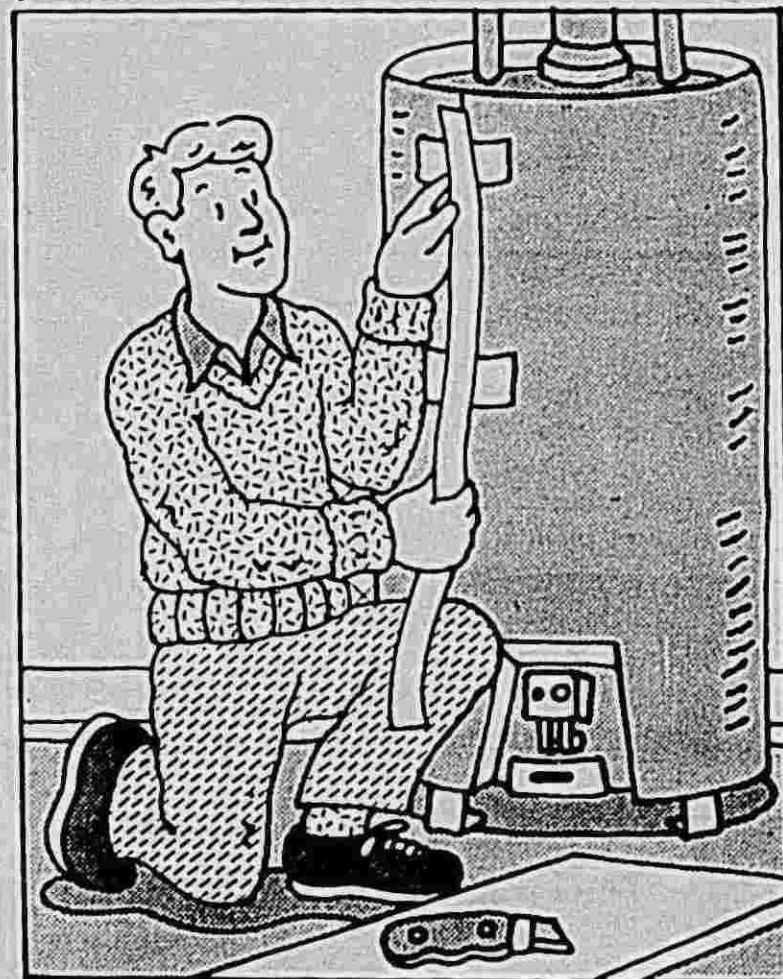

HOW TO DO IT.

Water heater insulation kits are available at most hardware stores. Kits usually include a vinyl-faced fiberglass blanket, tape, and complete, step-by-step instructions that are easy to follow. CAUTION: Do not insulate the top or bottom of your gas water heater. At the top, you may interfere with the draft diverter on the flue.

At the bottom, you may cut off the air supply.

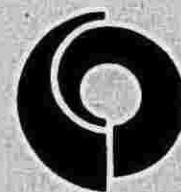

When working with fiberglass, be sure to wear long sleeves and gloves, to prevent skin irritation. You can usually cut the blanket with a large scissors. If you use a utility knife, be sure to do your cutting on a board to avoid damaging your floor.

MAKE THIS A HOT PROJECT.

Unlike some energy saving home improvements, wrapping your water heater will save you money all year long.

So don't delay. Get to work soon, and start saving soon!

Bones Lose Calcium As Age Increases

QUESTION: Can osteoporosis be aided with diet?

ANSWER: The word is out! Most people are aware of the need for calcium intake as age increases. The facts indicate that bone loses significant minerals and proteins from age 25 and up. This loss, over time, weakens bones in the legs, arms and spine.

The calcium loss from the bones has a tendency to become misplaced and aids in developing inflamed joints (known as arthritis), kidney stones and arterial plaque (known as arteriosclerosis). Bone loss is a part of the aging process, however, within the last 15 years more evidence has surfaced that suggests the rate of loss is controllable through life style planning.

Diet plays an important role in determining the degree of risk in osteoporosis. A lack of calcium intake is only one contributing factor. Equally important factors are the utilization blockers, such as: dietary fats, phosphorous, oxalates, alcohol and acid producing foods. Therefore, whole milk, with its fat content and lack of digestive enzymes, is not the most readily utilized source of dietary calcium. Skim milk has more quantity of calcium than whole milk.

Many adults have difficulty digesting milk which may result in increased abdominal bloating and gas after ingestion. However, yogurt (a milk product) contains substantial amounts of calcium, and is easily digested since it is cultured and contains digestive enzymes. Commercial yogurt, with fruit preserves, should be avoided since refined sugar is a calcium blocker. Using plain low fat yogurt with fresh or frozen (no added sugar) fruit is recommended. Natural applesauce and, granola (no added sugar) are also good companions to plain yogurt.

The essential factors for calcium utilization are itemized below:

CALCIUM BLOCKERS:

Dietary fat especially chocolate, meat and dairy; acid producing foods especially meat, dairy, grains and sugar; phosphorus especially red meat, dairy, soda pop; oxalates especially raw spinach and chard.

CALCIUM SOURCES:

One cup low fat yogurt, 398mg.; one cup

VITAMIN D SOURCES AND UTILIZATION:

Vitamin D is essential for normal mineralization, remodeling and repair of the skeleton. Most of the vitamin D in adults comes from sunlight exposure; it requires only about 20 minutes of sun on the hands and feet at midday to make the daily requirement of vitamin D.

Vitamin D deficiency does occur in the elderly population particularly in shut-ins or the disabled, who do not get outside in the sun enough; these people should be supplemented with 400 to 800 IU of vitamin D daily.

Doses of vitamin D above 400 to 800 IU daily have been shown to be of no value in treatment of osteoporosis and large doses (50,000 IU weekly or more) have been shown to have a high incidence of side effects and may actually increase bone loss by increasing bone resorption.

Woodman's Solid Color Latex Stain produces a solid coat of color over bare or stained wood surfaces. Use indoors or out on siding, shakes, shingles, etc. protects the wood but won't hide wood's beautiful texture.

Woodman's Exterior Semi-Transparent Oil Stain will repel water with one coat. Use 2 coats to deepen and intensify the color. Recommended for wood siding, shingles, shakes, fences, saw-textured lumber and outdoor decks.

Woodman's Solid Color Oil Stain and Wood Preservative repels water and resists mildew, rot and decay. Coats and penetrates the wood surface of siding, shakes, shakes and fences while allowing texture to show through.

BUYING A HOME SATELLITE DISH IS COSTLIER THAN YOU THINK.

Before you spend your hard earned money on a satellite receive dish you should learn the facts.

This year popular premium services like HBO and Cinemax will begin scrambling their signals with highly sophisticated electronic encryption devices.

And this new technique won't be limited to just premium services. Many basic cable channels like ESPN, MTV and CNN have announced their intentions to scramble signals.

What does this mean for satellite dish owners?

In addition to paying several thousand dollars for the purchase and installation of a receive dish, it will be necessary to spend hundreds of dollars on descrambling equipment plus pay monthly service fees for each channel received.

Make your decision based on the facts.

THE CHOICE IS YOURS!!!

If you haven't opened an Individual Retirement Account, you're paying more taxes than necessary. Regardless of your income, an IRA can lessen your tax bite and allow you to keep more of what you earn.

• Don't Pay Unnecessary Taxes

Your federal taxable income is reduced by the size of your IRA contribution, giving you a significant "break" at tax time. Even a modest annual contribution can make an important difference. Interest earned is tax deferred, so you gain an even greater tax advantage while saving for a more secure retirement.

• Put Your Money To Work For You

Let the Bank of Waukegan custom tailor an IRA to meet your individual needs. See our planning experts soon and make the savings choice that pays off both at tax time and at retirement.

Approve Free Tuition

The College of Lake County Board of Trustees has voted to approve free tuition to senior citizens aged 65 or older for any college class in which there is space available.

Current college policy, providing that students 60 years of age or older may be enrolled at CLC for one-half the present tuition rate, will remain intact.

The board has also voted to approve developing a landscape design for the new science wing. A provision of the proposal includes involving students in the horticulture program in the design planning process.

"Involving horticulture students in landscaping the new science wing is good 'hands-on' experience, as well as a vote of confidence in the excellence of our horticulture program," according to Millicent Berliet, board chairperson.

The board has also taken action to honor Arthur J.

Katzenmaier, of Gurnee, as the recipient of the 1986 Outstanding Illinois Citizen Award, to be presented formally at CLC commencement ceremonies May 17.

Former school superintendent in North Chicago, Katzenmaier served on the CLC Board of Trustees from 1976 to 1983 and has a distinguished record of public service. He is currently a member of the college general advisory committee.

Urge Protest To Fix Dangerous Intersection

Grass Lake News

by ARDEEN HARRIS

Did you ever have one of those days where everything went wrong? Get up early, the sun is shining, weather is warm and then—zap!—everything goes wrong.

First I was stopped for an illegal right turn at the intersection of Rt. 59 and Grass Lake Rd. When I was initially pulled over, I thought, "What did I do wrong? The light was green, my seat belt was on and my turn signal was working." Nevertheless, I was told that I was turning on the shoulder of the road. I received a warning ticket and was told that if I wanted to make a right turn, I would have to do so from the lane where everyone goes straight or makes a left turn.

My concern regarding this way of turning west onto Grass Lake Rd. is the amount of people who do not realize they are driving on the shoulder of the road. Of course, if I should get hit making the proper turn, the other party would receive a ticket for making an improper turn.

I have since talked to many people who have either received a ticket or a warning ticket at this intersection. Can you imagine the traffic jam we will have at that intersection this summer when the "summer people" start coming to our area? What about the accidents which will occur due to those drivers who are not aware that they are breaking the law? What can we do? Write letters to: Mr. Ben Lao, Dept. of Transportation, 1000 Plaza Dr., Schaumburg, Ill. 60192, and to Rep. Robert Churchill, Antioch, Ill. 60002.

One of two things must be done. Either putting in a sign stating that the area is not a right turn lane, or adding another white line to the curb area making it a turn lane. I would prefer the latter as my initial concern is a traffic jam on Rt. 59 from those people trying to make a left turn onto Grass Lake Rd. Another concern is the possibility of accidents from those people not observant enough to read the sign if one is posted.

When you write to the above people, indicate the intersection (Rt. 59 and Grass Lake Rd.), if you got a ticket or a warning, the reason for the ticket and your concerns for the intersection.

Let's get something done before summer arrives. It will take everyone working together to help solve the problem.

Congratulations to the Cub Scouts of Pack 80 who braved the winds of March 22 for their annual Kite Fly. Winners were decided by whose kite could last the longest and not be demolished by Mother Nature. Congratulations to Alex Groh, Justin Ward, Matt Vandrush and Brad Priller.

The Scouts will start selling spaghetti dinner tickets on April 12. Dinner will be served on Sunday, April 20 from noon to 5 p.m. Carry outs will be available. The cost will be $2.75 for adults and $2.25 for senior citizens and children. Children five and under will be free. Every year the Scouts do a terrific job of cooking and serving. Enjoy a Sunday away from the stove and help the Scouts at the same time. The place to be on April 20 is the Grass Lake School gym for the Annual Pack 80 Spaghetti Dinner!

Grass Lake School will be conducting their Kindergarten Roundup on Thursdays, April 17 and 24. If you have a child who will be five years old on or before Nov. 1, 1986, please contact Grass Lake School at (312) 395-1550 to set up an appointment for the pre-kindergarten registration/testing. If you know of someone in the district who might have a child this age, please pass this information on to them. The present kindergarten class at Grass Lake School will not have class on these testing days—mark your calendar.

School will resume from spring vacation on April 7.

There will be a Grass Lake School Board meeting on April 8 at 7:30.

There will be a shortage of bus drivers at Grass Lake School during the week of April 7. The following bus schedule will be in effect from April 7 through 11: 7:45 a.m., Mrs. Buffenbarger's first and second routes; 8 a.m., Mr. Harris's first bus route; 8:15 a.m., Mr. Harris's second bus route. In the afternoon: 2:50 p.m., Mrs. Buffenbarger's first and second routes; 3:05 p.m., Mr. Harris's first bus route; and 3:20 p.m., Mr. Harris's second bus route. Students should be at the regular bus stops in the morning at the above times. If any parents are able to drive their children to and/or from school during this week, it would alleviate some problems and would be greatly appreciated.

For those of you who have seen me hobbling on crutches, I didn't break my leg. I just fell down my basement stairs and pulled the muscles in my ankle. That was the end of my "zap" day.

Remember to call with your news and enjoy this great weather!

Ask Municipalities To Sign Agreement

by GLORIA DAVIS

At the last regular meeting of the Lake County Solid Waste Committee the committee passed a motion to send out an intergovernmental agreement to all municipalities in Lake County.

The Lake County Municipal League saw to it that the agreement was received by all county municipalities.

The agreement would create an intergovernmental agency called the Solid Waste Planning Agency.

The purpose of this agency is to give the county and-or municipalities the authority to create and implement a solid waste plan for Lake County.

The commission is asking the municipalities to sign and return the agreement by the end of June.

In other action, the commission approved giving $360 to the Libertyville Jr. Woman's Club to be used to purchase posters and refrigerator magnets to promote a new recycling center in Libertyville.

Retain Ukena

Lake County Democrats retained their county chairman and the system of six regional vice chairman as they reorganized their central committee in preparation for the general election in November.

Jay Ukena, Waukegan attorney, was retained as chairman without opposition in a meeting Monday night, March 31, at Slovenic Hall, Waukegan.

State Rep. John Matejvich keyed the meeting with the assertion, "Never take the voters for granted." State Rep. Grace Mary Stern also spoke.

Regional vice presidents for the next two years will be:

Area 1--Phil Straus, Deerfield and Highland Park; Area 2--Stan Pekol, North Chicago, Waukegan and Zion; Area 3--Brad Berman, Vernon Hills, Cuba and Ela townships; Area 4--Ken Sjorslev, Wauconda, Grant and Avon townships; Area 5--Joe Wischart, Fremont, Libertyville and Warren townships; Area 6--Karen Rydberg, Lake Villa, Antioch and Newport townships.

Sjorslev, a resident of Wauconda, heads the Lake County young Democrat organization. Rydberg resides in Lindenhurst.

Adam Kerman of Highland Park was elected secretary and Robert "Bob" Furtkamp of Zion was reelected treasurer.

The new sergeant-at-arms is Ron Prindle of Round Lake Beach. John Balen, long-time Lake County Board member, was named parliamentarian.

Accused Of Illegal Campaign

Campaigners for Char Kiesgen, GOP candidate for Dist. 4 representative on the Lake County board, have been accused of illegal electioneering during the March 18 primary by Grayslake Community High School election judges.

The judges said Kiesgen campaigners were approaching voters in the high school driveway and handing out Kiesgen literature. This is an illegal form of campaigning, according to the judges, because the election code restricts all campaigners to get any closer than 100 feet to the entrance of all polling places.

According to the judges, Kiesgen supporters allegedly had to be warned twice to discontinue the illegal campaigning.

It has been speculated that the polls will be watched much closer in the November general election.

NEXT WEEK'S HOROSCOPE

Aries (Mar. 21-Apr. 19) Oh, what a dandy aspect gets for you at this time. Grab hold even if it seems too far-fetched. Odds favor Aries who meet challenges head-on.

Taurus (Apr. 20-May 20) It's a divine time for the fortunate Bovine. Rebuilding spiritual well-being as well as material assets are favored. Romance beckons later.

Gemini (May 21-June 20) Someone with designs on you may start to renege on promises. If the pattern persists, it may be best to make alterations in your private life.

Cancer (June 21-July 22) Tie up loose strings. Trim away excess. Follow a leaner, tauter course and you lessen the chances of being tripped up on your way to your goals.

Leo (July 23-Aug. 22) This period favors Leos and Leonas who want to share their Lions' hearts with someone special. Best candidates: Librans and Aquarians.

Virgo (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) What seems to be a well-tended garden could turn out to be a patch of weeds instead. Appearances are deceiving. Look beneath the surface to find the truth.

Libra (Sept. 23-Oct. 22) Reach for the good things even though some gloomy Gusses and Gussies dissuade you. There are always more roses than thorns in your garden.

Scorpio (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) Avoid complicating the confusion around you. If you can't be a part of the solution, stay apart from the fray. As things ease up, you ease back in.

Sagittarius (Nov. 22-Dec. 21) Avoid being coy. Frankness is the quickest and kindest way to resolve your problem. The Archer favors an aim that's right on target.

Capricorn (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Taking too much advice is like taking too much medicine. A little more is not always better than just a little bit. Careful. Sea Goat, don't overdose.

Aquarius (Jan. 20-Feb. 18) Enrichment is favored for Aquarians. This can be in material, cultural or emotional areas. Pay special attention to needs of children.

Pisces (Feb. 19-Mar. 20) Current events favor the fortunate Fish who knows how to take advantage of the changes around him or her. New technologies dominate the period.

Block That Kick?

Players for Antioch in the basketball game scheduled for Friday, April 11 against the 'Good News Bears' may be confused to see Chicago Bear players throwing, rather than kicking, the ball. The game will be held at the ACHS gymnasium and will begin at 7:30 p.m. It is being sponsored by the Antioch Lions Club.

Chamber Plans Meeting On Show

The Antioch Chamber of Commerce will hold a meeting at the village hall on Thursday, April 3, at 2 p.m. to finalize plans for the R.V., Boat, and Auto Show. All participants will have to have registered before the meeting is held.

Scout Troop 92 Takes 1st

Antioch Boy Scout Troop 92 won first place for the third consecutive year at the Lakes Dist. First Aid Meet, held at the Grant High School gymnasium. The troop's Panther Patrol and Vikings Patrol competed in a field of 18 patrols in the simulated treatment of six real-life first aid problems.

The problems included broken bones, grand-mal seizure, chemical poisoning, sun stroke, multiple person vehicle accident and electrical accident. Each problem was valued at 100 points and included the criteria of analysis, reporting, correct treatment and teamwork. Adult leaders and senior scouts acted as judges.

The first place Panther Patrol earned 579 of the 600 possible points and consisted of Mark Aschbacher, J. Bruski, Dale Gade, Steve Goetzelman, Dan Ravens, Dave Stachel and Dave Weston.

The sixth place Vikings Patrol earned 546 points of the 600 possible points and consisted of Eric Anderson, Matt Aschbacher, Jim Benedict, Brian Paschke, Andy Reeves and Dan Weston.

Scouts Brian Clark, Phil Hettich and Bob Paschke were selected from the troop to assist in the judging.

The Scouts were accompanied to the first aid meet by Scoutmaster Bernie Dost, Committee Chairman Harold Clark, Assist. Scoutmaster Bill Goetzelman and Paul Hettich.

Following the first aid meet the Scouts and their leaders held a victory celebration at McDonald's. As a result of this victory the Troop 92 Panther Patrol will compete against other district winning patrols in the Northeast Ill. Council First Aid Meet held during the annual Scout show at the Lake County Fairgrounds.

Dist. 4 Still Republican

By JOHN STEINKE
(Political Columnist)

County Board District 4 includes Antioch, Avon, Grant and Lake Villa Twps. in western Lake County. It is predominantly a Republican area with a Democratic enclave in the Round Lake area.

Voter apathy was the principal winner in the March 18 primary. Only 20.7 percent of Dist. 4's 37,253 voters cast ballots in the election. The official count shows that 7,716 votes were cast in the primary.

There were 6,095 Republican votes, compared with the Democrats 1,057 votes. Dist. 4 Republicans polled 85.2 percent of the vote and the Democrats only 14.8 percent. The Four Round Lake communities recorded 365 Democratic ballots, representing over one-third of the Dist. 4 party's vote.

Here is a table showing how District 4 votes participated in the 1986 primary election.

Twps.	PRIMARY VOTE DIST. 4
	Reg. Voters	Votes Cast	Dem. Ballots	Rep. Ballots
